LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS

LODGING There are no satisfactory hotels in the immediate Cooper Union area, but many in the mid-town area. A few suggestions are:

City Square Motor Inn, Broadway & 51st Street

Park Sheraton, 870 7th Avenue @ 56th Street

Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, 861 8th Avenue @ 52nd

All travel agents can furnish names and prices for others, and can make reservations. See also Out of Town Hotels in classifieds of large cities.

PARKING There are many lots in the vicinity, charging about $2.00 for all day. Most are on Third Avenue between E. 7th and E. 10th Streets.

BOARDING Saturday lunch on the town-- there will be a map of local eating places at the Registration Desk. Information on other places in town will be available also.

An informal dinner is tentatively planned for Saturday evening at nearby Llichow's, whose Edwardian setting and German cuisine are legendary. Further information will be furnished at registration.

MISC On Broadway, 1½ blocks from Cooper Square, are several large paperback book shops, well worth browsing.

The Conference Registrar, Prof Edward S. Rutsch, will be on hand to answer questions on accomodations and facilities. Beforehand: Fairleigh Dickinson University, Madison, NJ 07940.

For Program questions: Chester H. Liebs, Program Chairman, Vermont Division of Historic Sites, Pavilion Building, Montpelier, VT 05602.
